

BQ21 BARBECUE WITH STAND

DESCRIPTION

With the barbecue BQ21 you can enjoy the pleasure of grilling the whole year. Without using gas or coal, this unit is capable of grilling smokeless and therefore it can be used both outdoors and indoors, without having to worry about bad weather. The large cooking area is 51 x 30 cm and let you cook more food at the same time, the adjustable thermostat allows you to control the temperature, ensuring that the food is always grilled to perfection and without burnings. Completely dismountable, this barbecue is easy to clean and it can be stored without taking up too much space in the kitchen.
